

Evening of Balkan Live Music and Dance

February 10, 2012 (Friday)

8:30-11:30

Kafana Republik

Kafana Republik faithfully recreates the music of Eastern Europe from Macedonia, Bosnia, Bulgaria, Serbia and Croatia. Their repertoire highlights the songs, ballads and dance music that form the heart beat and the soul of these cultures. The kafana has a place of honor in the Balkans- typically a cafe or a coffee house; a place where the community gathers to share food, drink, ideas, songs, passion and experiences. Their members include Tali McGill (vocals), Michael Lawson (accordion, vocals), Steve Ramsey (guitar, vocals), Ahmad Yousefbeigi (percussion), Peter Lippman (trumpet), and Flo Damian (bass), They have been popular at Georgia's and other dance venues. We welcome them to their first performance for Seattle Balkan Dancers at our large Kafana. Please attend and help support live Balkan music and dancing with this great band.
